Introduction

On behalf of Scarborough Muir Group we are pleased to offer on a speculative basis, the chance for an occupier to acquire Central Scotland's newest industrial and logistics opportunity.

Providing up to 50,000 sq ft (4,645 sq m) of high-quality accommodation and situated one minute drive from the Queensferry Crossing M90 motorway, this development is ideally situated to serve the main Scottish cities of Edinburgh, Glasgow, Dundee and Aberdeen. Furthermore, there is immediate access to the Port of Rosyth with connections to Europe and beyond.

The building is capable of being subdivided into two 25,000 sq ft (2,322 sq m) units.

A detailed planning application has been submitted to Fife Council and works are expected to start on site by Q2 2023 with the unit(s) available for occupation by the end of 2023.

Green Freeport Status

In January 2023, the Scottish and UK Governments selected Forth Green Freeport as one of two locations for Scotland's first Green Freeports.

Queensferry One is a proposed tax site within the Forth Green Freeport, meaning that eligible businesses could benefit from a range of tax incentives and Customs reliefs, including:

- Non-Domestic Rates Relief
- Enhanced Capital Allowances
- Employer National Insurance Contributions
- Enhanced Structures and Buildings Allowance
- Land and Building Transaction Tax Relief

Location

Situated alongside Junction 1 of the M90 motorway in Central Scotland the property is ideally situated to service the main cities in Scotland and also direct motorway access to the south.

Q1 50 is part of the Queensferry One development which in turn is situated alongside the Port of Rosyth.

South West Fife already has an existing highly skilled workforce with local training and research facilities available. Fife College and a further 8 universities are within one hour's drive providing valuable support to local, national and international businesses in the region. Fife is also one of the most desirable areas in Scotland to live with many local coastal villages and attractions located in Dunfermline, East Neuk of Fife, St. Andrews and the City of Edinburgh all within one hour's drive.
